

FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE
A Cheerful Room Maketh a Cheerful Diner.

What? Put all the comfort into the living rooms and leave the dingy, cheerless kitchens? Surely not, when such artistic furnishings are here now below even factory prices.
Wall hangings and draperies of the latest tones and most beautiful textures. Carpets and rugs in correct colorings now reduced.
Oak Tables, 6-foot extension, at $7.00; others of Dutch and French designs, whose polished tops will give the keynote for artistic luncheon decorations.
Coastal Arm Chairs with rush seats; exquisite little China Cabinets, Side Tables and Caring Tables, Plate and Spoon Racks.

Exhibit of New Spring Silks.

Secure in the possession of Novelties that we alone show, and assortments that equal in volume two average stocks, we lay claim to your first attention.
Printed Satins, Foulards and Corded Japanese Silks are presented in all new, effective color combinations and designs—with THREE OPENING SPECIALS that make the occasion memorable.

1.—Magnificent line of CORDED JAPANESE WASH SILKS, plenty of plain white and a rare range of colors, grouped at the one price 38c
2.—Hundreds of pieces of 24-INCH PRINTED FOULARDS, all this season's goods, our own controlled styles; to be opened up at 55c 3.—Immense stock of BLACK SWISS TAFFETAS, 20 inches wide, superior quality, such as we safely recommend for wear; Monday opens them at 55c

A Daily Freshening of Shirt Waist Styles.

Detailed, new are—Straight effects with bias bandings—new styles showing wide shoulder and small sleeves—straight fronts tucked and lace trimmed—French back effects, and fifty more. Telling is like trying to draw a tree from a handful of leaves.

Find Special Price Interest in 43c. Waists, 67c. Waists, 98c. Waists and Waists at $1.49. These are the lots that made the fortnight-old stir. They are new all through, all save the low prices.

A Bargain in 19c. Imported Embroidered Swiss.

Let's you should think 19c. all the value, we'll enlarge on the description. Six striking effects, oddly contrasted; applique on a chain bound fabric, embroidery held apart by narrow, delicate cordings, point at once to cultured designing and set the goods on a 29c. level. What are 40 pieces, after all? A Summer wash fabric at a winter bargain price means crowded counters. These shall serve to open the season.

TO BE NOTED ARE— Ribbon striped Dimities—diagonally embro-dered Swisses—shimmering Brillantes—applied Zephyrs, whose stripes are stitched to stay—silk floated Batistes—silk warp Cordings—plain and dotted Foulards—Dresden Foulardettes—floral Persianites—serpentine Plumettes, and—drawn out details must yield. See them—see all we have to omit. (To Dress Goods Department.)

Continuation of the Muslin Underwear Selling.

Have we not every right to expect a greater second week? Whenever a garment was shown by friend to friend, and price told, another buyer was secured. Lots are larger now. We offer (what we could not show before) the full resources of this nonpareil stock. And many prices are lower, besides.

FRENCH UNDERWEAR—dainty, piquante—Petticoats, imported, lace trimmed 89c Nightgowns, imported, embroidered 98c Chemise and Drawers, hand embroidered, lace trimmed 75c

DOMESTIC UNDERWEAR—modelled on French—Unequaled 98c. Special—GOWNS in cambrie and nainsook, trimmed with finest embroidery, tureen, Val. and point de Paris laces, new Bolero yokes, new V backs and fronts, low neck and short sleeves (Summer favorites), etc., etc. CHEMISES, nainsook and cambrie, ordinary and skirt lengths, richly trimmed. DRAWERS to match both Chemises and Gowns, extra full, regular widths and umbrella effects. CORSET COVERS in Marie Antoinette French Blouse, straight fronts and Boleros, 98c. trimmed with finest laces. No such choice ever fell to. Corset Covers, 19c.—Gowns, 50c.—Drawers, 35c. Highest values.

Our January Sale of High Class Notions.

To those who through years have waited for and profited by this annual event—nothing need be added. But New York's great transient populalation, ever changing, calls for instruction. To such we say, absorb these items and prices, fully understand them, see how, on essential articles in continual use, we save at least one-third of the money invariably asked and paid.

Boys' Wash Suits, $1.25.
Some of our best styles figure in this lot. Nattiness, good tailoring, little touches of tasteful fixing make them well worth early getting. We offer English Galatians, Crashes and Denims; plenty of collar variety, and nearly twenty distinctive effects of trimming. Sizes 3 to 10 years.

Imported Whipcords, 50c.
Dress Goods that it pays to buy.
Money doubles itself in the wear alone, without even counting the fact that 46 inch width means another economy. Three shades of blue, two of brown, two of green, a plum, a tan, wine and gray—you will never reach the end of their service, nor should they be sold under $1.00 or $1.25.
The loss falls on the importer.
